FINAL ORDER OF FORFEITURE

The Court has reviewed the United States' Motion for a Final Order of Forfeiture (Doc. No. 367). The Court finds:

Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853, and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(2), this Court entered a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture based on Defendant's plea providing for the forfeiture of Defendant's right, title and interest in the below-described property, and the Court's finding of requisite nexus between the property and the offense committed by Defendant.

- a. a Romarm/Cugir, model WASR-10, 7.62 caliber rifle, bearing serial number 1-99345-11 RO; and
- b. any and all ammunition and magazines not specifically listed.

The Court's Order further directed the United States to provide notice to any persons known to assert an interest, as well as publishing notice stating the intent of the United States to dispose of the property in accordance with the law, and further notifying all third parties of their right to petition the Court within thirty (30) days for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of their alleged legal interest in the property.

Notice of this forfeiture and the requirements for filing a claim for the property was published on the government's website at www.forfeiture.gov for thirty (30) consecutive days beginning on January 5, 2022, and ending on February 5, 2022, for at least 18 hours per day. A copy of the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture was also provided to the following parties:

- (a) Paul Faulk, Attorney for Defendant, by Notice of Electronic Filing on December 9, 2021 (Doc. 243); and
- (b) Defendant Liliana Padron-Perez, served through her attorney of record by Notice of Electronic Filing on December 9, 2021 (See Doc. No. 243).

It appears from the record that no third party made any claim to or declared any interest in the above-described forfeited property as required by the ancillary provision of 21 U.S.C. § 853(n). Therefore, any third-party interests are barred by failure of those parties to file a petition.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the right, title and interest to the property described above is hereby condemned, forfeited, and vested in the United States of America, free and clear of the claims of any person, including Defendant Liliana Padron-Perez, and shall be disposed of according to law.

That upon entry of this Order, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, and/or other appropriate federal agency, is directed to deliver the above-described property to the United States of America for disposition according to law.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States District Court shall retain jurisdiction in the case for the purposes of enforcing this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 12th day of September 2022.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
